The Battle for Europe

After more than 60 years of World War II indoctrination most people consider themselves knowledgeable about the events leading to and through this conflict. The most fascinating aspect of this compilation is the revelation that much of the victors' account of events is bunkum. The Battle for Europe unravels the victors' propaganda and casts a new perspective on the European tragedy of 1939-1945.

Contained in this work are insights and revelations you will not find anywhere else, dealing with the true origins of the conflict, Allied atrocities and cover-ups. Here's a superb presentation which, for the first time, tells the war from an objective viewpoint. Be prepared to be shocked at the level of duplicity, lies and propaganda on the conflict, battles, personalities and events of World War II. This new edition also contains many rare photographs of the conflict, including those of German soldiers tortured to death by the Allies and much more. Softcover, 108 pages, #629, $20.

IQ and Race

IQ and Race: The Complete Overview. Featuring the work of Henry Garrett, Arthur Jensen, J. Phillippe Rushton, Richard J. Herrnstein, Charles Murray, Richard Lynn, Tatu Vanhanen and others. The April 2012 discovery by an international team of scientists of the gene HMGA2, which determines brain size and intelligence, has firmly established the supremacy of the “nature” or racial-determinant view of intelligence and achievement over the leftist “nurture” argument. This book reviews and summarizes all the major and influential works on IQ and race published since 1980. Includes summaries of the greatest works on race and intelligence plus full details of the 2012 HMGA2 gene discovery report. Softcover, 86 pages, #633, $15.

Behind Communism

By Frank L. Britton. Updated, revised and expanded 1917—2010. Fully revised, expanded and updated from the original 1952 book, this work clearly shows that Communism grew out of Russian Judaism. Although the Soviet Union has disappeared, the ideology that underpinned that state—state-engineered economic and social egalitarianism—lives on, and is stronger than ever before in the West. Now completely updated to include postwar Communist movements in eastern Europe, Britain, America, South Africa and China, this book is the most detailed record yet of the leading Jewish role in Communism. The conclusion discusses the reasons for Jewish extremist behavior, based on an understanding of group evolutionary psychology. Fully illustrated and indexed. Softcover, 237 pages, #632, $20.

Russia's Agony

Russia's Agony: An Eyewitness Account of the Russian Revolution. By Robert Wilton. The London Times' correspondent in Russia provided the first Western eyewitness account of the monumental events that resulted in the creation of the Soviet Union. Wilton provides a full historical background and the disastrous course of WWI for Russia, which set the scene for the seizure of power by the Bolsheviks. He then details the Red Terror's full enormity, and ends with the optimistic—and incorrect—hope that Bolshevism and Communism would be short-lived. Although Wilton's credentials were impeccable and his status unchallenged, this book was blacklisted because he dared to report openly on the overwhelming number of Jews amongst the Communist revolutionaries. Contains all original pictures and maps. Softcover, 404 pages, #634, $27.

The World of the Ancients

Our Aryan Ancestors: The World's Historical People. By Fleming Howell. The author takes you through the ancient history of the Aryans, explains exactly who they were (and are) and then takes you on a whirlwind tour around the globe to reveal the hidden history of the white race. From the Temple to the Talmud: Exploring Judaic Origins, History, Folklore and Tribal Traditions. Dr. Harrell Rhome offers a panoramic look at Jewish history, culture and religion from a Revisionist perspective and offers a new interpretation. Going back to ancient sources, including research from controversial scholars, Rhome covers the topic in an easy-to-read style, with many illustrations and a long list of sources. After reading this book you will be well versed on “the curiously camouflaged and conveniently convoluted chronicle of the people called the Jews.” Genetics, religion, symbolism, customs, holy books, enclaves, dispersions, banishments, secret societies, cultural origins, linguistics—this book has it all. Softcover, 261 page, #606, $25.

Who Were the Early Israelites & Where Did They Come From? Exactly who were the ancient Israelites? Were they genetically different from their Semitic neighbors, or were they the same racial stock merely with a different religion? William Dever explores the continuing controversies regarding ancient Israel and presents the evidence for assessing the accuracy of the well-known Bible stories. Dever draws on 30 years of archeological fieldwork in the Near East, amassing a wide range of hard evidence for his own compelling view of the development of Israelite history. Featuring 50 photographs, this book provides an authoritative statement on the origins of ancient Israel. Softcover, 280 pages, #474, $22.

The Teuton and the Roman—By Charles Kingsley, edited and abridged by J. W. Jamieson. Rome died and its empire collapsed when wealth corrupted the social system and continual warfare sapped the bloodstream of the original founders. The final death blow was delivered by waves of fierce Germanic Goths and Lombards. The Teuton and the Roman describes the decadence of the latter-day Roman empire, and the revitalization of its Italian territories under the conquering Germanic nations that settled and repopulated northern Italy. Softcover, 122 pages, #611, $15.

The Races of Europe By Carleton Stevens Coon, anthropology professor at Harvard University. This book was one of the most important anthropological overviews of European racial types ever published. Although published in 1939, this work remains a standard in racial typology. After a huge survey of the available data, Professor Coon concluded that: The white race is of dual origin, consisting of Upper Paleolithic (mixture of sapiens and neanderthal) types and Mediterranean (purely sapiens) types; the Upper Paleolithic peoples are the truly indigenous peoples of Europe; the Mediterraneans invaded Europe in large numbers during the Neolithic period; when reduced Upper Paleolithic survivors and Mediterraneans mix, a process of “dinarization” occurs, which produces a hybrid with non-intermediate features. Coon classified the white races after regions or archeological sites such as Brünn, Borreby, Ladogan, East Baltic, Neo-Danubian, Lappish, Atlanto-Mediterranean, Irano-Afghan, Hallstatt, Keltic, Tronder, Dinaric, Noric and Armenoid. This work is a faithful transcription of the original and contains the full set of photographic plates that illustrate the expansive range of topics explored. Oversized softcover, 8.5 x 11, 436 pages, dozens of maps and charts, hundreds of photos, #608, $40.

MARCH OF THE TITANS: A History of the White Race

By Rhodesian scholar Arthur Kemp

Here it is: the complete and comprehensive history of the White race, spanning 500 centuries of tumultuous events from the steppes of Russia to the African continent, to Asia, the Americas and beyond. This is their inspirational story—of vast visions, empires, achievements, triumphs against staggering odds, reckless blunders, crushing defeats and stupendous struggles. Most importantly of all, revealed in this work is the one true cause of the rise and fall of the world’s greatest empires—that all civilizations rise and fall according to their racial homogeneity and nothing else—a nation can survive wars, defeats, natural catastrophes, but not racial dissolution. This is a revolutionary new view of history and of the causes of the crisis facing modern Western Civilization, which will permanently change your understanding of history, race and society. Covering every continent, every White country both ancient and modern, and then stepping back to take a global view of modern racial realities, this book not only identifies the cause of the collapse of ancient civilizations, but also applies these lessons to modern Western society. The author, Arthur Kemp, spent more than 25 years traveling over four continents, doing primary research to compile this unique book. There is no other book like it in existence—a book to pass on from generation to generation, so that all will know the true history of the White race. New deluxe softcover, signature sewn, 8.25” x 11” format, 592 pages, hundreds of B&W pictures, four-page color section, indexed, appendices, bibliography, chapters on every conceivable White culture group and more. High-quality softcover, 592 pages, #464, $42.

UNCENSORED EUROPEAN HISTORY

History's Greatest Heist: The Looting of Russia by the Bolsheviks. How did the bankrupt Bolsheviks manage to stay in power through five long years of bloody civil war? Author Sean McMeekin draws on previously undiscovered materials from the Soviet Ministry of Finance and other European and American archives to reveal how the Jewish Bolsheviks financed their aggression via astonishingly extensive thievery. The cash savings of private Russian citizens, gold, silver, diamonds, jewelry, Christian icons, antiques and artwork were sold off. By tracking illicit Soviet financial transactions across Europe, McMeekin shows how Lenin’s regime accomplished history’s greatest heist between 1917 and 1922 and turned centuries of accumulated wealth into the sinews of class war. McMeekin also names names, in-roducing for the first time the super-wealthy families, greedy bankers, sleazy lawyers and compliant middlemen who, for a price, helped the Bolsheviks launder their loot, impoverish Russia and kill tens of millions. Hardback, 302 pages, indexed, #533, $38.

The Origins of Western Civilization: The Economic, Social & Political Forces That Have Revolutionized the Western World. By Dr. Harry Elmer Barnes. As you journey through this book, you will see the great cultures of the West rise and fall for reasons as simple as free trade, the quest for precious metals, usury, debt slavery and the pursuit of freedom. Along the way you will see thought-provoking relationships to today’s world. Softcover, 115 pages, #510, $18.

The Third Rome: Holy Russia, Tsarism & Orthodoxy. By Dr. M. Raphael Johnson, former editor of TBR. Academic historians, liberals and Communists have been fashioning a fantasy world around Russian history for nearly 100 years, spreading slander and myth about an entire population. Here's the first book in English that sets out to defend the history of tsarist Russia from St. Vladimir to Tsar St. Nicholas II—Russia before bloody Bolshevism. Softcover, 246 pages, #368, $25.

The Work of All Ages: The Ongoing Plot to Rule the World from Biblical Times to the Present. This book is a brief history of the Jewish people, from the days of Abraham to the present. They are a very intelligent group, hard working and well organized, but are often resented, disliked and persecuted. From ancient times, they are alleged to have had a vision of world supremacy, based on the belief that they are God's "chosen people." Today, many look forward to the coming of the Jewish messiah, who will lead them to rule the world from Jerusalem. The state of Israel—in Zionist eyes the reincarnation of legendary kingdoms—however, has no problem targeting the great Christian and Muslim centers of the world with nuclear weapons if it is threatened with destruction before this comes about. In 33 chapters, this book reviews some of the things that have been done over the centuries—often in great secrecy—to advance this agenda. Softcover, 230 pages, #585, $25.

The Centuries of Revolution: Democracy, Communism, Zionism. By William White. In The Centuries of Revolution, White has stepped forward with an unsettling—but consistently fascinating—exposé of the dark forces behind world subversion that have worked relentlessly on virtually every front to forcibly transform traditional white culture for the benefit of the financial and political power of one manipulative minority. Tracing the origins of this agenda back to pre-Biblical times, exploring the worship of the strange gods the Israelites encountered in Egypt, White demonstrates—with shocking clarity—that the underlying philosophy of revolution has been insidiously utilized to mesmerize and enslave the peoples of the West. Democracy, Communism and Zionism are the tools. Softcover, 200 pages, #617, $25.

RUSSIAN POPULIST The Political Thought of Vladimir Putin

Russian president Vladimir Putin is one of the most reviled politicians in the West. At the same time, few leaders worldwide have maintained such high levels of popularity as he. Putin's political and economic successes are too startling to be debated. With high rates of economic growth, military and police reform, and a concerted attack on official corruption, Putin has become a trusted populist leader, and a significant figure in global nationalism, non-alignment and multipolarity. This book, written by former BARNES REVIEW editor Matthew Raphael Johnson, Ph.D.—an internationally acknowledged expert on Slavic and Russian studies—attempts to synthesize the basic political views of Putin. Softcover, 178 pages, #630, $25.

Philip Melancthon (1497-1560)

By Rev. George Wilson. Here is a beautiful little enhanced reprint of a rare book written back in 1897. The book covers the life of German preacher Philip Melancthon (1497-1560) from his childhood, to his days in Heidelberg and Tübingen and on to his time in Wittenberg.

Melancthon was a respected associate and friend of Martin Luther and has been called the first systematic theologian of the Protestant Reformation. Besides Luther, Philip Melancthon is considered the most important figure in the founding of Lutheranism. Ten original illustrations are interspersed throughout book. Softcover, 159 pages #635, $15.

Authentic American History

White America. By Earnest Sevier Cox. Cox was one of the most prescient racial thinkers to emerge from America. Although born a Virginian, he believed the practice of owning slaves was inherently contradictory to white American survival. White America's theme is two-fold: First, that the racial dissolution of the white race is inescapable whenever there is the substantial presence of another race; and, second, that civilization itself cannot survive that destruction. Starting with an overview of prehistoric racial migrations, ancient Egypt, India, China, Mexico, Peru, Latin America and South Africa (which he predicted would not survive) Cox finally reviews the racial situation in the United States. He also explains what the only guarantee of survival is for all races. This edition has been combined with the pamphlet "Lincoln's Negro Policy" which deals with the efforts of leading white and black Americans to repatriate Negroes back to their ancestral homelands. Softcover, 201 pages, #610, $20.

The Dartmoor Massacre: A British Atrocity Against American POWs During the War of 1812. By Vivian Bird. Seven unarmed American prisoners were killed and more would die from the more than a score that were wounded. No members of the British garrison were killed or injured. The British garrison commander attempted to hide and bury the dead before the prison doctor could produce a body count. Also includes: a list of killed and wounded and how they died; the ships from which almost all were impressed by the Royal Navy; depositions from eyewitnesses on all sides; little-known details of the massacre; photos and diagrams. Softcover, 104 pages, #319, $13. NOW JUST $8.

The Battle of New Orleans: Andrew Jackson and America's First Military Victory. Esteemed historian Robert V. Remini details the pivotal battle wherein the United States finally sealed its independence. Readers will find this book of 290 pages a real page turner. Fighting against incredible odds, Jackson turned probable defeat into victory—not once but numerous times. Above all, being personally committed to victory at any cost, he was able to inspire and command the loyalty of professional soldiers as well as volunteers from all over, including Kentucky and Tennessee mountain men who made up for their rustic frontier ways and appearance with sharpshooting that no Englishman could match, nor any of their multinational troops, including Irishmen and East Indians. Jackson also accepted the support of a most amazing array of fighters imaginable, from slaves, freedmen, Creek Indians, even pirates—anything he could assemble into the units he so effectively commanded. Jackson is portrayed by Remini to be a man of sensitive feelings and instincts. Above all, Jackson was a patriot, determined to make America into a first-class world power. Andrew Jackson is a man who would be called "great" in any country, but he is ours and must not be forgotten or minimized. To see Andrew Jackson in his rightful stature, read this book. Softcover, 290 pages, #600, $16.

The Politically Incorrect Guide to American History. Almost everything you've been taught about U.S. history is wrong! It's because most textbooks and popular history books are written by left-wing academic historians who treat their biases as fact. But here's a Revisionist book to set the record straight. Professor Thomas Woods refutes a host of myths. Woods reveals facts that you never were taught in school, tells you about the books you're not supposed to read, and takes you on a politically incorrect tour of American history. Softcover, 380 pages, #424, $20.

The Real Lincoln: A New Look at Abraham Lincoln, His Agenda and an Unnecessary War. By Thomas J. DiLorenzo. The author makes hamburger out of sacred cow. DiLorenzo shows Lincoln as he truly was, a mentally unstable despot bent on dragging the nation into years of bloody, unnecessary fratricide. A side of Lincoln few ever knew existed is exposed for all to see. The book argues convincingly that Honest Abe—worse than FDR—was a calculating politician who subverted the Constitution, disregarded states' rights and achieved the closest thing to a totalitarian dictatorship yet seen on U.S. soil. Softcover, 361 pages, #427, $16.

Memoirs of the Confederate War for Independence: A Prussian in J.E.B. Stuart's Cavalry. By Heros von Borcke. This is a highly detailed personal memoir of Heros von Borcke's adventures with dashing cavalry leader Gen. J.E.B. Stuart. A giant of a man, von Borcke carried a huge broadsword that sent fear into the opponent. He was in the thick of every scrum and was entrusted with secret assignments by Stuart. An incredible story told by a man with an uncanny eye for detail—botanical, geographic, artistic, historical. A story you'll never read in any mainstream history book, von Borcke's eloquent style makes this a real gem. Softcover, 399 pages, #516, $23.

Conquest of a Continent. Madison Grant was one of America's most influential racial thinkers. In Conquest of a Continent, Grant tells us of the European antecedents of the original settlers who tamed America. Grant was an unapologetic Nordacist and, by using documented historical fact, proves that the colonists who opened up America for settlement were primarily of Northwestern European stock. Written at a time when the U.S. Congress had just halted all further non-Northwestern European immigration, Grant's book predicted what would happen if unlimited immigration were allowed once again. Softcover, 252 pages, #613, $22.

Re-Forging America: The Story of Our Nationhood. By T. Lothrop Stoddard. Written just after the passing of the 1924 Immigration Act, this book by one of America's most prominent racial thinkers is an in-depth analysis of the racial developments that led to the American Revolution, the Civil War and the mass immigration of the late 19th century which disrupted the until-then almost entirely Northwestern European colonization of North America. Softcover, 234 pages, #616, $22 minus 10% for TBR subscribers.

Willis Carto and the American Far Right. By George Michaels, Ph.D. This reasonably balanced book covers the tumultuous yet highly productive career of Willis A. Carto from its initial stirrings through the founding of Liberty Lobby—an America-first, populist lobbying group—and the creation of The Spotlight and up to the seeming ruination of Carto's publishing empire. But Carto fights back—and wins again. Hardback, 341 pages, #505, $45. Just $35 for TBR readers!

The Strange Death of Franklin Roosevelt. Subtitle: A History of the Roosevelt-Delano Dynasty—America's Royal Family. By Dr. Emanuel Josephson (1945). In this fascinating book, the author explains that the Roosevelt-Delano dynasty has had an immense impact on U.S. history. The author claims that Washington, John Adams, John Q. Adams, Madison, van Buren, Andrew Johnson, William Henry Harrison, Taft, Teddy and Franklin were all related to the Delano-Roosevelt family. The book also discusses the merging of the Delano-Roosevelt dynasty with the Rockefellers. But perhaps of most interest is the analysis by Dr. Josephson (a medical doctor) of the surgery that removed a cancerous mole from FDR's forehead and the possibility that the president's brain had long been addled by cancer. Softcover, 288 pages, illustrated, indexed, #591, $28.

Nullification: How to Resist Federal Tyranny in the 21st Century. Popular author Thomas E. Woods Jr. provides an eloquent defense of the politically divisive subject of nullification, a remedy used by states against unconstitutional federal power grabs. In this book Woods strikes at the root of the problem and offers common sense, Constitution-based solutions. Here Woods provides a "how-to guide" for Americans fed up with out-of-control politicians. Nullification is the key. Hardcover, 306 pages, #548, $25.

Race and Reason. Holding science and law degrees from Princeton and Columbia University, Carleton Putnam was founder and president of Chicago & Southern Airlines, which later became Delta Air Lines. Putnam served as chief executive of Delta, and remained a director until his death in 1998. Race and Reason was his first book. It explains the reality of race in the face of a determined assault on racial realism in the 1960s. Written in question and answer format, this book answers every liberal argument on race with passion, reason, compassion and intellect. Softcover, 122 pages, #614, $15.

The Black Book of Communism. A team of French historians chronicles the crimes of Communism wherever it attained power in the world. The authors put the number of victims at 85 million. Hitler Democrat. When retired Belgian General Leon Degrelle—the last surviving major figure from WWII—died in Spain in 1994, he was in the early stages of a proposed 14-volume series of works to be collectively titled “The Hitler Century.” At the time of his death, the colorful and exquisitely literary Belgian statesman had completed some three volumes, but outrageous intrigues sabotaged most of his work. However, thanks to the energetic efforts of a group of honest historians—graciously supported by Madame Degrelle, the general's widow—a substantial portion of his work was rescued and published over a period of years in THE BARNES REVIEW, the bimonthly journal of Revisionist thought. Now, that material appears in Hitler Democrat between two covers for the very first time. In the end, this volume is not only a monumental work of history, a genuine epic, but it is also in its own fashion a tribute to the man behind it: front-lines fighting Waffen SS officer Leon Degrelle. Softcover, 546 pages, #622, NOW JUST $30.

The Rothschilds: Shares in Waterloo

A historical/propaganda account of the Rothschild family's rise to fortune, set mostly in Great Britain during the Napoleonic wars, the movie reflected an ambitious National Socialist political agenda. The movie aimed to show the "Judaization" of British society at Rothschild hands, and thus demonstrate why, in Joseph Goebbels' words, Britons had become "the Jews among Aryans." With its striking juxtaposition of Nazi social criticism and racial theory, and its deft recycling of many key facts surrounding the House of Rothschild, this film deserves far more recognition than it has received over the years. English subtitles. DVD, B&W, 97 minutes, #576, $30.

The Great Tragedy: Germany's Declaration of War

Adolf Hitler's Dec. 11, 1941 speech to the Reichstag, delivered just hours after a formal declaration of war had been delivered to the U.S. ambassador in Berlin, marked a decisive turning point in the global tragedy of WWII. This speech was more than just a declaration of war: it is an 88-minute personal explanation by Hitler of the origin of the war, the background to the outbreak of the war in Poland, its subsequent dramatic developments, why he decided to attack the Soviet Union in June 1941, President Franklin Roosevelt's hostile policies toward Germany, a short overview of Germany's place in the struggle for all of Europe, and finally his earnest desire for peace at any cost. This is the first complete and accurate translation. Softcover, 41 pages, #636, $9.

Resistance Is Obligatory. Here’s the inside story from the “thought criminal” himself—Germar Rudolf. Rudolf was a highly respected chemist with a promising career who made the “mistake” of telling the truth at a place (Germany) and time (during court) when lies are the only permissible public statements about the holocaust. When informed he would be sent to prison for his factual testimony, Rudolf went underground. He was caught and returned to Germany and put on trial for his “crime.” During trial his defense lawyers were prohibited under the threat of prosecution from filing motions in support of Rudolf’s historical statements. In his own defense, Rudolf gave a speech in court that lasted seven sessions. Here it is. Softcover, 376 pages, 6”-by-9” format, B&W illustrations plus 16 full color plates of Rudolf’s paintings and sketches made in prison, #620, $35.

Final Solution: Germany’s Madagascar Resettlement Plan. Everyone knows the Germans had a “final solution” for their so-called Jewish Problem. But what they may not know is that Adolf Hitler’s final solution did not involve homicidal gas chambers, bizarre medical experiments and blazing crematory ovens working night and day to incinerate victims. Instead, Hitler’s final solution offered Jewish leaders the island of Madagascar, the relatively untouched, mineral-rich, barely populated, large and secluded island off the coast of east Africa. But instead Zionists insisted on locating in the Holy Land, where they knew strife and conflict awaited on property they had no legal claim to. Historian Ralph Grandinetti tells us what the Madagascar plan was and why it failed. Softcover, 90 pages, #626, $12.

Reckless Rites: Purim and the Legacy of Jewish Violence. Purim is the Jewish holiday spawned by the Old Testament’s Book of Esther—a holiday based on the brutal massacre of 75,000 innocent Persians. Today we see Israeli leaders again calling for the massacre of Persians living in the modern-day state of Iran. Is history repeating itself? Hardback, 322 pages, #476H, $44.
